HOLLYWOOD LEGENDS TIPPI HEDREN AND ANGIE DICKINSON JOIN THE AGENCY FOR UK REPRESENTATION

CARY CRANKSON

Cary is having a very busy time, he is about to film a guest role in "The Bill" playing the role of Richard Vincent while rehearsing Aphra Benn's "The Rover" which will be playing at The Southwark Playhouse from 1st - 18th July. Cary has just finished a two handed "The First Domino", about the Soho bombing 10 years ago. It had its first performance at The Groucho Club before going to the Brighton Festival.

KATIE POSNER

Katie is very excited to pack her bags and head up North to work for Pilot Theatre as an Associate Director for the next six months. During this time she will be working on "The Fever Chart" by Naomi Wallace which is about three visions of the Middle East and was quoted by the Guardian as being "the kind of short, stark and simple play that reminds us why we need theatre at a time like this, what the playwright can achieve that the journalist cannot." She will also be working on Platform 11+ which is Pilot's new European piece and well as various other projects.

JO ADAMSON

Jo has just completed casting on two very different short films 'Soul Flowers' for Shoot Productions and 'Threads' for Picture Palace North. Casts on these include Matt Healy, William Travis as struggling Northern farmers in a lovely inspiring film directed by Tor Kristoffersen and Matt Taabu directs Jamie Lomas, Reece Noi and Melanie Ash in a racially provocative short. Jo is currently casting 'Chuckle Vision' for CBBC - finding 'Little Paul & Little Barry Chuckle'!

LISA HARDING

Lisa Harding is playing Connie Boylan, in the Irish soap, "Fair City's" first lesbian character. It seems that the troubled (and up to now, as far as the viewers are aware, straight!) Yvonne Doyle finds true love with Connie, who she met four years ago in Australia, where Connie lived for over ten years. Connie is a strong, independent outsider who arrives in Carrigstown and sees straight through all the evil manipulations of Yvonne's present boyfriend, Louie. She is direct, strong-willed and confident, all of which attract Yvonne. A dramatic love triangle is set to play out.
